LONG SUFFERING ENDED SWEETLY.

Mrs. Louis Adams Dies In Louisville Last Tuesday--Leaves Husband And Four Small Children.

FUNERAL HELD HERE.

The funeral of Mrs. Louis Adams was held in this city Thursday afternoon by Rev. Currie. She died in Louisville Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Adams had been in dreadful health for several years.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson. She was born in 1877 and married in 1895. Her maiden name was Nannie Elizabeth Adams. Besides her husband, four small children; Clarence, Evelyn, Mary and Louis, Jr., are left.

Mrs. Adams lived for the happiness of her family and died with a heart full of love for them. She was well-known here, having lived in this city and was a member of the Methodist church.

She is also survived by her parents, one brother, W. R. Wilson, and two sisters, Mrs. Truman Adams and Mrs. Tillman Pauley, who attended the funeral.

BRODIE

Wants Information--Subscribes For The News To Learn What's Doing.

J. C. Brodie, Republican candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, was in the News office last week to subscribe for the paper. Mr. Brodie said he wanted the News to learn about the Democrats.

For Miss Hambleton.

Messrs. Harry and Charlie Hambleton entertained at the Fisher home Wednesday evening in honor of their sister, Miss Jane Hambleton.

ENGINEER DeHAVEN BADLY INJURED

In Wreck Monday Morning on Henderson Route, Near Reed--Fireman Cain Hurt--Car Load of Hogs Killed.

NEW ENGINE TORN TO PIECES.

About five miles west of Reed, freight No. 166, of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis, was wrecked Monday morning about 7 o'clock.

Engineer Wickliffe DeHaven was scalded dreadfully on his back and limbs. His escape from death was miraculous. Engineer DeHaven is at his home on the hill. This is the first wreck he has been in for fifteen years. He is one of the most capable men on the road.

Fireman James Cain was also injured, and was taken to the hospital in Owensboro.

The cause of the accident is unknown. The freight was a double-header, and DeHaven's engine was second. It was thrown upside down from the track and ten cars were derailed.

Winn's at Irvington.

M. Winn has opened a new butcher-shop at Irvington. Cloverport can highly recommend him to that place, for he is most accommodating and knows his business.

President Taft Being Royally Received.

President Taft's speech-making itinerary will be continued this week, taking him through Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado and Utah. Thus far the President has been royally received, and he appears to be enjoying the trip. The various topics on which he decided to speak are being taken up systematically.

At Hites Run.

The Baptist Sunday School will close for the winter months Sunday. A program of unusual interest has been planned for the day. Mrs. John Blythe will make the farewell address.

GROWERS ARE GIVEN NOTICE.

Three Associations Join in Statement--Pooling Pledges to Close.

"The Hartford Herald says: 'The tobacco situation as to the prospect for pooling with a view to joint and favorable selling continues good. There is no dissatisfaction of any kind, and the three associations are acting in a spirit of friendly rivalry in the matter of securing pooling pledges, and after the pledging is closed they will act in complete co-operation in the matter of fixing prices and selling the tobacco. This will be a step in advance of anything done in the past, and will prove gratifying to all who rejoice in law and order and system and the good name that the Green river section of the State has deservedly borne heretofore.'

"As a matter of notification to the growers and also to further the present cordial relations that exist among the associations, the following statement is made by officials of the three associations:

"The work of canvassing will be continued by all associations until Saturday, September 25. From September 25, to the 30 of September, pledges will be found in each county for the convenience of those whom the canvassers have not seen and for those who have not signed.

"Due notice will be given where pledges can be found. On September 30, the pledges of all associations will positively close, and no one will be permitted to sign after that date. While each association is out to pledge all the tobacco possible, each association will push its own pledge. But when it comes to the selling and delivering of the tobacco, all associations will co-operate.

"We wish to drop a word right here to those who are undecided about pooling. The three associations are co-operating. We earnestly urge every grower to pool, but the grower who does not sign by September 30, may have cause to regret it. Be wise, take a hint, pool your tobacco and run no risk of getting left.

DEATH ANGEL AT HARDINSBURG.

Mrs. Jos. W. Teaff Dies After Illness of Six Months--Known For Kind Deeds.

INTERMENT AT ST. ROMUALDS.

On the morning of September 13th Hardinsburg lost in the death of Mrs. Joseph W. Teaff a noble and well beloved woman, one whose friends was equal to her number of acquaintances, one who loved honesty and right and eschewed evil in all its forms.

Mrs. Teaff had patiently borne her sufferings for six months, during which time all was done for her that willing, loving hands could find to do. Her going to a celebrated health resort in another State, where expert physicians were in care of her, was without avail--the Death Angel had singled her for a fairer world, and she resignedly submitted to "the will of Him who doeth all things well," with smiles bidding farewell to her loved ones.

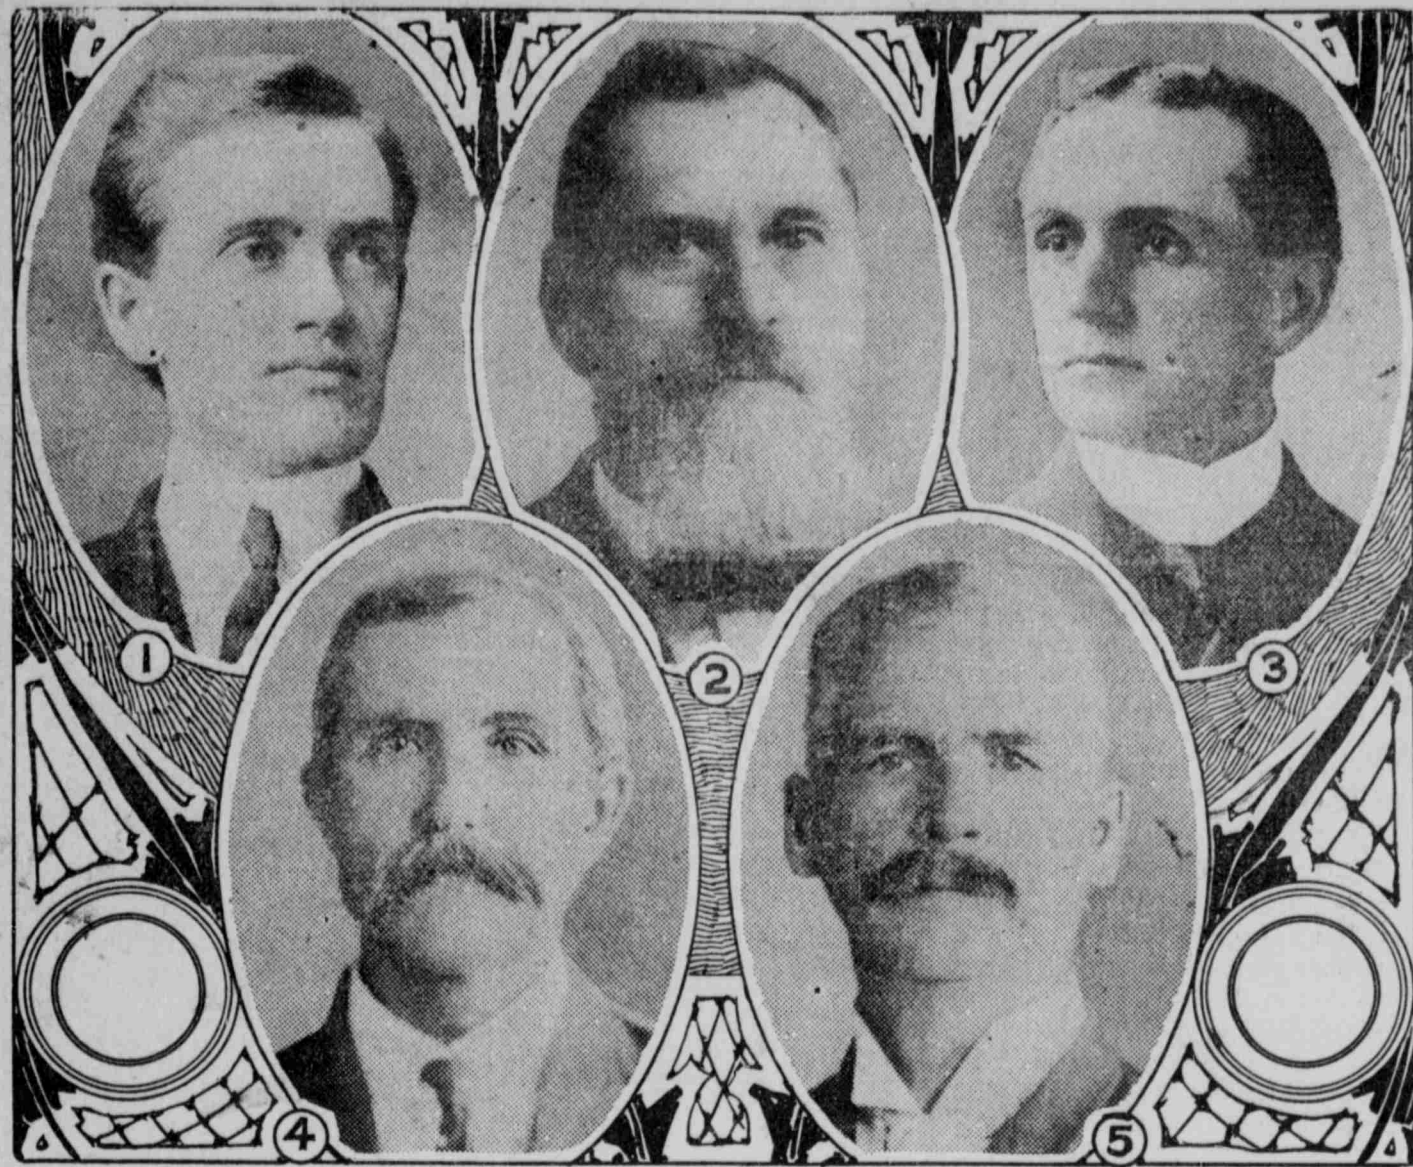

The deceased lived a life of usefulness, being for thirty years identified with the business interests of Hardinsburg. She was twice married, her first husband being Con Haffey, a man who is remembered for his sterling worth.

Seventeen years ago she became the wife of Joseph W. Teaff, who lives to mourn his great loss. She was the last member of her immediate family. Before marriage she was a Miss McGary. Her nieces, Esther and Fannie McGary, are her nearest living relatives.

She was noted for her gentleness and kind deeds, especially to the unfortunate. In religion, a Catholic, devout, a lover of her church and a substantial supporter of the cause--in every sense a Christian woman whose deeds testify more than any mere profession could do.

The interment was in St. Romuald's cemetery near the two churches, the old and the new, where she has so often worshipped.

1--John W. Trent, for Superintendent of Schools. 2--Matthias Miller, for County Judge. 3--C. Vic Robertson, for County Court Clerk. 4--Lee Walls, for Circuit Court Clerk. 5--V. G. Babbage, for County Attorney.

Seemingly, the most one-sided game that was ever seriously played in Breckinridge county politics is in the local campaign for the November election. The Democratic party has captains and the men. Notwithstanding, victory looks certain for them, the candidates are the most enthusiastic ever in the ring in the Peunyrile.

C. Vic Robertson, candidate for County Court Clerk, heads the ticket.

For County Judge, Matthias Miller is in the race. Lee Walls is the candidate for Circuit Court Clerk. V. G. Babbage is working for the office of County Attorney.

When Joe W. Trent's name was placed on the ticket as a candidate for Superintendent of Public Schools, not only Democratic teachers, but those devoted to the "Log Cabin" threw up their hands in hurrah. H. G. Vessels, for Sheriff; William Gilbert, for Jailor; Peyton Claycomb for Assessor, and Lee Bishop, for Coroner, are making a vigorous fight like the others. They are men of high standing, well thought of by every man, woman and child in old Breckinridge.

Owing to the ticket of splendid men the Democratic party has for it this year the independent newspaper of the county, The Breckinridge News. John D. Babbage has been making his pen and press go in full power for the rooster.

And the voters! They have never been better pleased, even the Republicans are shaking hands with C. Vic Robertson and giving their word to elect him.

AT MACAULEYS.

"Paid In Full" Played This Week The Story Is Running In The Breckinridge News.

At Macauley's Theatre all this week, beginning Monday night, Sept. 20, and with Wednesday and Saturday matinees, Eugene Walter's famous comedy drama "Paid In Full" will delight all who see it. Because of the tremendous popularity of this play the engagement was lengthened a week, instead of three nights, and this notwithstanding the fact that it was in Louisville last season.

All the world knows "Paid In Full." It is the most celebrated play of the present generation and it ran two entire years in New York City without break. It will be acted at Macauley's by the cast that comes direct from the Astor Theatre in New York. It is the greatest cast that has ever appeared in this great success.

MRS. MOREDOCK

Weds Southern Merchant--Wedding Took Place At Daughter's Home In Louisville.

Mrs. Emma Moredock and Mr. John B. Anderson were united in marriage Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Richardson in Louisville. The ceremony was said by Dr. Alford Porter.

Mrs. Anderson is well-known in this city as it is the home of her girlhood. She is the daughter of Mrs. Francis Sawyer and is a lovely woman. Her Louisville friends remembered her beautifully with wedding gifts.

Mr. Anderson is a successful merchant of Whitesboro, Texas.

A Drive to Chicago.

Mr. Neilsen and guest, Mr. Mars, will drive from Tar Springs to Chicago next week.

CLOVERPORT WINS DOUBLE HEADER

Took a Game From Sample and One From Balltown at The West End Lot.

BLAINE AND HEMPHILL TWIRL

Cloverport took both games of a double header at the local ball field Sunday afternoon. The first game was played with Sample and was a good game of ball. Malcolm O'Brien played a fine game at short for Sample and Hemphill, who pitched for the locals in the initial contest, won his own game. Some of the fans are of the opinion that Hemphill is a "bad" ball player, but if some of the rooters were on the diamond, they would play or try to play, the same kind of a game that Hemphill does.

The second contest was played with Balltown and was an easy victory for the home team. Except for the playing of Balltown's first baseman the game was so slow as to be entirely featureless. Blaine was touched up pretty lively, but was effective with men on bases.

Mrs. Brickey Dead.

Mrs. James Brickey, of Vanzant, died at her home Sept. 10 and was buried in the Brickey grave yard. She leaves a husband and two little girls.

Directories.

The Breckinridge County Directory which was compiled by Roy Moorman has been published.

EXAMPLE SHOULD BE FOLLOWED BY ALL ON FRONT STREET

One or two of the Merchants are setting a good example by cleaning up their pavements on Main street. A representative of the News heard it said by a citizen last week that he was ashamed of Main street in Cloverport, it was so filthy with paper, trash and tobacco juice. This is true, for there are several places that are hardly passable. It is sincerely hoped that all merchants

PEACE IN TO- BACCO FIELD.

Agreement Made By President Cantrill With Burley Society Ratified.

"Louisville, Ky., Sept. 17, 1909.--The Kentucky State Union, A. S. of E., met pursuant to a previous call by President Cantrill. The following members were present: President Cantrill, Thomas T. Barrett, of Henderson; Ben Watson, of Dixon; J. H. McConnell, of Princeton, and G. W. McMillen, of Butler, Ky. George C. Davis was absent. President Cantrill called the meeting to order, after which Mr. McConnell moved that we ratify the action of Mr. Cantrill in accepting certain propositions as offered by the Burley Tobacco Society at Winchester, Ky., August 10, and which had been formally ratified by the State Board of A. S. of E., in session September 11.

THE RESOLUTIONS AS ADOPTED.

"The Board of Directors of the American Society of Equity Department of Tobacco Growers, in special session in Louisville, Ky., September 17, 1909, adopted the following resolutions without a dissenting vote:

"Resolved, First, that we indorse the action of the Board of Directors of the Kentucky State Union, American Society of Equity, in ratifying the agreement made between State President Cantrill and the Burley Tobacco Society.

"Second, That we urge all members of the American Society of Equity, who are growers, to lend all possible assistance to the Burley Tobacco Society in making the pool successful by signing their tobacco to the pool.

"Third, We believe that there should be but one burley pool and all unite in fighting for a common cause. With every man doing his whole duty, you will succeed equally as well in the future as you have in the past. Remember the pool closes October 1: you have only thirteen days left, and what you do must be done at once.

(Signed.) "E. L. Davenport, President of the American Society of Equity department of tobacco growers.

"R. E. Blake, Secretary.
"H. E. Rout, Brooksville, Ky.
"M. O. Hughes, Bowling Green.
"J. F. Doss, Greenville, Ky.
"J. W. Swallow, Lake, Ind.
"W. E. Bibb, Sacramento, Ky.
"A. A. Clark, Georgetown, O.

Nice Kindergartens

Miss Annie Raitt was well pleased with the attendance of her kindergarten this term.

Miss Eliza May also has a charming set of little tots enrolled at her school.

The Owensboro Inquirer Sold.

W. Q. Adams, owner of the Owensboro Inquirer, has sold his paper to Hon. S. W. Hager, former State Auditor, for the handsome price of $30,000. Mr. Hager will make the paper Democratic in politics. This leaves Owensboro without a Republican organ. Mr. Hager has resided in Louisville for some time, but will move his family to Owensboro in a short time.

Methodist Church.

There is only one more Sunday now until our Annual Conference, and I shall be glad to meet every member of our church, when a statement of our year's work will be made.

Very truly,
B. M. Currie, Pastor.

Miss Alice.

In this issue of the News, Miss Alice B. Hickey, has her fall Millinery announcement. She will be pleased to receive your order directly from you, or through Miss Addie Ditto.
